St Paul's Way Trust is an outstanding 'Through School' with a track record of innovation. Drawing extensively on academic research the school provides a unique curriculum experience centred on our vision of a "transformational education for all."

We are seeking to appoint an outstanding and creative Teacher of English. The post would be suitable for both an ECT and a more experienced teacher who would like to develop their skills and expertise in a well-resourced English Faculty. Experience in teaching GCSE English Language/Literature would be particularly desirable.

This is an excellent career opportunity for a colleague who is passionate about the entitlement of young people to an English curriculum that teaches the best powerful knowledge decided upon by the subject community. You will be joining an incredibly hard-working and passionate team and will work under dynamic and supportive management. The English faculty is also a high performing team; in August 2019, the faculty celebrated 100% A*-C at A level, 78% Grade 4+ for GCSE Language, and 89% Grade 4+ in GCSE Literature. The team is committed to build on this success, to continue to raise attainment and enhance provision.

We are looking for an individual who:

- Has a calm, professional and approachable manner to support the raising of attainment of all students they teach
- Will contribute to an inspiring, innovative and caring team
- Is proactive and has exceptional classroom skills

We will offer:

- Enthusiastic, courteous and considerate students who behave well and have good attitudes to learning
- An exceptional, well-resourced learning environment
- A supportive and friendly team of staff
